Joyful Company of Singers

Peter Broadbent – Conductor

The Joyful Company of Singers - JCS - is one of Britain's leading amateur chamber choirs, committed to performing a wide and challenging repertoire of choral works from the 16th to 21st centuries.

We were formed in 1988 by our conductor Peter Broadbent MBE. The choir first came to prominence when JCS won the Sainsbury's Choir of the Year competition in 1990 before going on to win an impressive list of national and international competitions.

Our concert performances have included most of the leading UK festivals and regular concert tours in Europe, broadcasting in many countries as well as on BBC and Classic FM.

JCS will be touring North Northumberland during the Early May Bank Holiday weekend, with main performances in:

- St Mary's Church, Wooler on Saturday 4th May at 7.30pm
- St Paul's RC Church, Alnwick on Sunday 5th May at 7pm

Our two programmes for these concerts are complementary but with differences, on themes that feature the sea, life's transitions and voyages of many kinds. The Alnwick concert will also include readings by local poet and author Katrina Porteous.

We shall also be giving free half-hour 'taster' afternoon concerts on:

- 4th May at 2.15pm in the "minstrels' gallery" at Ad Gefrin, the Anglo-Saxon Museum and Whisky Distillery at Wooler
- 5th May at 1.45pm at The Alnwick Garden
